The 2016 Israeli Foreign Policy Index - Key Findings The current state of Israel-US relations: Israel's The government's The MFA's 5.56 out of 10 global standing* handling of foreign ability to fulfill policy* its mission* Not good 29% Mediocre 20% 8% 10% 10% Reasonable 35% 22% Good 16% 42% 49% 24% 55 52% Ĵ 31% 18% 17% 17% The most important countries for Israel Good Reasonable Mediocre Not Good *Out of 10 in the world (except for the US) 30% Britain Israel's top foreign policy priorities 37% Promoting the ties with the US 31% romoting the Israeli-Palestinian peace process Promoting the ties with moderate Arab countrie 31% 8 Is Israel's foreign policy based on clearly defined principles? Improving Israel's foreign relations depends on progress Think that Israel is a in the peace process regional superpower 66% 60% Yes Agree Disagree No Where does Israel belong? Should Israel offer a diplomatic initiative 29% 26% 23% of its own to promote 55% 30% 15% Israeli-Palestinian Yes No conflict resolution? More to the Neither to More to Equally to both Middle East Europe Europe and the Europe nor the Middle East Middle East Think that the Arab citizens Regional 64% of Israel should have Think 66% cooperation with a more central role in that the 26% Middle Eastern improving Israel's relations weakening countries is: with Arab countries of Israel's Foreign Ministry harms the country's national 64% security Possible Regional Foreign Policies www.mitvim.org.il 🔽 🚹